

“The True Story of the Whole World”

Wrap-up and final thoughts

May 22, 2016

Thanks so much for attending a True Story Sunday School class!

We'd love to get your feedback about your experience.

1. To what extent did these parts of the “True Story” experience enhance your faith? Rate each one 1-5, with '5' being 'very important' and '1' being 'not very important'.

Reading the True Story of the Whole World book	5	4	3	2	1
Content of the CE classes attended	5	4	3	2	1
Relationships built during the CE classes	5	4	3	2	1
Study guides for each session	5	4	3	2	1
Worship service (hymns, visuals)	5	4	3	2	1
Sermons preached that related to the previous lesson	5	4	3	2	1
Having an extended church wide focus on one topic	5	4	3	2	1

2. One goal of the True Story project was to gain greater familiarity with the whole Biblical narrative. How successful was this for you?
3. Thinking about your participation in the True Story Project, what is one thing from it that will make a significant impact on your life?
4. Next fall, there are classes being planned based on the book of John. How interested might you be in participating in another class?
5. Are there any other reflections you would like to submit?

The class that I attended was led by _____.
