

THE MIDWEEK

WORSHIP

THIS SUNDAY 9:30 A.M.

The worship service this Sunday will be a celebration of music in worship. It will include congregational singing, and dedication of the new hymnal, Voices Together. Denise Hedberg's message, Reflections on the Holy Spirit in Glorious Sound, will consider the role of music in building faith and community, the contribution of a small group at illuminating the spiritual gifts, and the challenges and opportunities to trusting that God will do more than we can imagine alone. Wayne Hochstetler is planning and leading the service, in which many others will assist. For the festive occasion of the dedication of our new hymnals on Sunday, please wear purple if you have it available. Thank you.

Birthdays & Anniversaries

CELEBRATING LIFE'S MOMENTS AT MCN

Scripture consistently reveals a God of abundance, not scarcity. In the wilderness, God provided manna, and quail, and water for the Children of Israel, in abundance. God provided oil and flour for the widow from Zarephath, in abundance (1 Kings 17). God provides grace and mercy for all, in abundance. Jesus provided wine and bread and fish, in abundance. As Jesus ascended, he promised his disciples his presence, in abundance: And remember, I am with you always, to the end of the age (Mt. 28:20).

Jesus consistently called his followers to a theology of abundance. His point in the parable of the pounds (Luke 19:11-27): don't be cautious with God's resources. Instead, invest them so they multiply. In Luke's context, the resource to invest, seems to be God's grace—not material resources. He promised his followers in John 14:12: the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do, and in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father.

Is our perspective in life, shaped more by a theology of abundance, or a theology of scarcity? If abundance prevails, we will confidently claim God's promise to provide what we need for each day, whether material, emotional or spiritual resources. We will engage in our congregational vision work, with an expectation that the Holy Spirit will work abundantly among us.

If scarcity defines our perspective, we will tend to be cautious and overly protective of what is, and what we have. In Jesus' parable of the pounds, the cautious servant lost what he was trying so hard to protect.

In my experience, the poor, who have only known scarcity, seem to have a better developed theology of abundance, than those of us with ample resources. This is another example of the mission is mutual concept: as we provide resources for others, God wants us to be open to receive resources they have, which we lack.

Barry Weaver, one of three congregationally elected Vision Team members, has accepted a call to serve as Vision Team Chair. His congregationally elected position will be filled by Shelly King, the next in line in the congregational election results. The Spiritual Gift Discernment Team (SGDT), is discerning the last Vision Team role: Vice Chair. SGDT is comprised of Lynn Reha, Nancy Fisher, Gary Martin (pastoral representative). Melika Hershberger, as Pastoral Council chair, is serving temporarily on SGDT, until the Vision Team Vice-chair is named, who also serves on SGDT. All individuals discerned by SGDT, are presented to the congregation for feedback, before their appointment is official. When the Vision Team, and Spiritual Gift Discernment Team, are complete, they will be commissioned during a worship service. Please watch for an e-mail message from SGDT in a few days, which invites you to share your interests in serving at MCN, and your recommendations for where others are gifted to serve.
